PRESIDENT RUNS INTO COLD SNAP EASTER MORNING

Keen Before Augusta Threw Out; No Special Program for Executive, Just Golf

Augusta, Ga., April 1.—The first cold wave of the month, reaching far down into the south, met President and Mrs. Harding on their arrival here today to open the final week of their vacation, but it's chilly blizzard was soon forgotten in the cordiality of Augusta's welcome.

After nearly a month spent under the warm and sometimes almost broiling sun of Florida, the return to even a taste of northern weather was most noticeable, and members of the vacation party promptly cast aside the straw hats, flannels and other warm weather clothing. An Easter sun, however, soon warmed the air and by noon everybody had pretty well thawed out.

The special train on which the presidential party left St. Augustine at 2:30 o'clock last evening, arrived here soon after 6 o'clock this morning, but the President and Mrs. Harding stayed aboard until nearly 9 o'clock. Several hundred persons were at the station with an official welcoming delegation headed by Mayor Julia M. Smit and George M. Lombard, president of the chamber of commerce.

Another welcoming group awaited Mr. and Mrs. Harding at the Bonwit-Teller hotel, where they will stay during their visit here. This group includes Speaker Gillett of the house, former Judge Kenesaw Mountain Landis, former Senator Hitchcock of Nebraska, Dr. Nicholas Murray Butler and Charles D. Hills, Republican national committeeman for New York. Many of these called at the presidential suite during the afternoon and at their cards.

In observance of Easter the President attended two services. Accompanied by Speaker Gillett, Secretary Christian and Brigadier General Sawyer, he attended the morning services at the First Baptist church. After leaving the church he went to the Masonic temple and participated in the Easter service there, making a brief talk. Somewhat tired by the train ride Mrs. Harding did not attend church as had been expected.

In accord with his expressed wish no public functions have been arranged for the President during his stay here and most of the week will be devoted to golf and rest.

COSTUMED PERSONS

Enter Church, But Leave at Peter's Request; General Scrimsage Outside Edifice

Pittsburgh, April 1.—Six members of a band of 16 white hooded Ku Klux Klansmen were shorn of their hoods in a scrimmage after they had been ordered from Bellevue Methodist Episcopal church by the pastor, Rev. Dr. R. B. Urmy, this morning.

The Easter Sunday services had just begun when the 16 white robed figures entered and walked down the aisle toward the pulpit. The Easter-morning worshippers were startled when Elmer L. Rhiney, a member of the church board, commanded the members of the masked band to leave.

Dr. Urmy then intervened: "Gentlemen," he said, "I shall have to ask you to retire. You are disturbing the services here, which is a violation of law. You will be welcome to remain if you remove your disguises. Otherwise you must go."

The hooded men about faced and marched directly from the church followed by a number of men from the congregation. Outside the church a general scrimmage ensued and the hoods and flowing robes of six of the band were torn away, revealing their identity. Before they left an officer parked nearby, the license number of their cars were obtainable.

In a statement issued today Mr. Rhiney advised his intention to request the district attorney to prosecute the members of the band.

PLAYING HIDE AND SEEK,
LAD LOCKED IN ICE BOX

Camden, N.J., April 1.—Faint cries of "Hey, mister, mister," coming from an icebox in the rear yard of the Elks' lodge rooms today attracted the attention of the janitor and upon opening the door, six-year-old Willie Elberon fell into his arms, exhausted from cold and hunger.

The lad told the police that he had been locked in the ice chest early last night by two boys with whom he had been playing "hide and seek." He was not acquainted with his playmates, he said.

The child's mother, Mrs. Berrie Elberon, believed last night that he had been kidnapped and so notified the police. Searching parties were formed and spent most of the night looking for the little fellow.

Except for a severe cold the boy suffered no injury.

JAPANESE PRINCE KILLED.

(By the Associated Press)

Paris, April 1.—Prince Naruhiko Higashikuni, brother-in-law of the emperor of Japan, was killed in a motor-car accident at Berney today.

Prince Higashikuni was the son of the late Prince Yoshihiko. He married Princess Fumiko, seventh daughter of the late Emperor Meiji, father of Emperor Yoshihiko. The prince was 34 years old. He was a major of artillery and went to Europe in 1913 for military inspection.

PROGRESSIVES AGREE ON TAX LEGISLATION

Program Tentatively Arranged Planned to Bring Tax Free and Stock Dividends Within Taxing Range

PUBLISH RECORDS

Under Existing Laws, Says Representative Frear; Secrecy in Tax Matters Kills Public Confidence

Washington, April 1.—A program for tax legislation in the next congress tentatively agreed upon by the progressive wing of the house was made public today by Representative Frear, Republican, Wisconsin, who declared "several measures have been drawn to meet weakness of the 1921 revenue law."

The bloc, he said, in a statement:
"ought to adopt of a constitutional amendment to bring investments in tax free securities and stock dividends within the taxing powers of the federal government, an increase in the inheritance tax and enactment of a gift tax, a retroactive tax on undisturbed profits and an excess profit tax."

Legislation which would require the treasury to make tax records public will also be sponsored, said Mr. Frear, adding that "any proposal to enact a sales tax will meet with certain defeat."

"Grossly Unfair Result."

Commenting on the need for a constitutional amendment "to reach tax free holdings or stock dividends," the Wisconsin representative, who is a member of the ways and means committee, said that single individuals often hold millions of dollars tax free whereas many professional men are paying far larger taxes on their personal service income alone." This "grossly unjust result," he added, is due to tax evasion made possible by court decisions in this country.

In proposing an increase of the inheritance tax those who favor such a measure, Mr. Frear said, would grant certain credits "where state laws overlap the federal laws on inheritance taxes."

A gift tax, he declared, will be urged as serviceable in preventing estate tax evasions.

By making the undistributed profit tax retroactive, the friends of such legislation would hope, Mr. Frear stated, "to reach corporate surpluses laid aside annually and afterward distributed in stock dividends."

"Profiteering Unlimited."

Declaring that "profiteering is unlimited," the statement advocated an excess profits tax upon the "enormous corporate profits that are escaping any, excess profits tax today." The bill which has been prepared would begin with rates lower than the old low in the lower brackets, but with a heavy rate on higher profits, "to remove the incentive for profiteering which was never more unconscionable than today." The measure would exempt from the tax eight per cent profits on the invested capital.

Discussing the proposed publicity of tax records, the statement declared:
"Under existing law secret records secret testimony by interested parties, secret findings and secret repayments are contrary today to reach billions of dollars in the aggregate until public confidence in the administration of the law has been undermined. Tax records, like other public records, should be made public in fact."

SEVENTH POPES TO HAVE PET MEASURES PASSED

Albany, April 1.—Final disposition of Governor Smith four-year term and executive budget proposals, passed by the senate but defeated in the assembly, is expected to follow the conference between the governor and Republican leaders of the assembly next Wednesday.

The governor has not yet given up hope of forcing passage of the measures at this session. The results of the first conference with the assembly leaders was so satisfactory, the executive indicated, that he sees a possibility of bringing the majority over to his viewpoint through the medium of conferences. The effect of his speeches during his tour of the state, starting in Syracuse Tuesday, is also depended upon to aid his program.

The Republican majority in the assembly, with the destiny of the Democratic administration measures resting in its hand, is expected to continue to exercise its power. Repeal of the Taft anti-sedition laws this week is freely predicted. The majority, in their conference last Tuesday, voted to have the bills reported out of passage, which is considered equivalent to Republican support. The Republican in the lower house had abandoned the method of killing bills by advising report and have decided instead to allow unacceptable legislation to die in committee. Merely sending the Taft law reporters out for action, therefore, is viewed as the knell of the teacher's loyalty test and the licensing of private schools.

ALBANY'S COLDEST EASTER

Albany, April 1.—Predictions of the Albany weather bureau that a new local temperature record for Easter would be established, proved to be correct, but inaccurate.

The mercury dropped to nine above zero, breaking the record of 12 above zero, established April 12, 1924, but reproduced the same degree the temperature predicted.

FORMULATION OF INTERNATIONAL AMERICAN LAWS

All States Equal Before Law and Have Right to Complete Independence, Liberty and Sovereignty

(By the Associated Press)

Santiago, Chile, April 1.—When the juridical committee of the Pan-American conference resumes sessions this week, it will have before it the project providing for the establishment of a code of international law for the American continent, incorporating and amplifying the principles of the Monroe doctrine.

The project is contained in a report made to the conference by Alejandro Alvarez, a Chilean jurist and member of one of the committees appointed by the commission of jurists which met in Rio de Janeiro in 1912, to study the subject of codification of American international law. The project contains 15 articles, the first two of which affirm the right of the states of the new world to establish the fundamental basis on which "international American society" ought to rest and draw all the principles on which questions of complete independence, liberty and sovereignty, which cannot be limited for an outside continent, even with the consent of an American state.

Only Friendly Interferences.

No extra-continental state may occupy even temporarily any portion of the territory of an American state in order to exercise sovereignty, even with the consent of that state. No state may intervene in the interior or exterior affairs of an American state without the consent of the ways and means committee, said that single individuals often hold millions of dollars tax free

paying far larger taxes on their personal service income alone." This
court decisions in this country.

In proposing an increase of the in-
measure, Mr. Frear said, would grant certain credits "where state laws over-
taxes."

A gift tax, he declared, will be ur-
tax evasions.

By making the undistributed profit
tax retroactive, the friends of such
stated, "to reach corporate surpluses
distributed in stock dividends."

"Profiteering Unlimited."

Declaring that "profiteering is unlimited," the statement advocated an
bill which has been prepared would
begin with rates lower than the old
heavy rate on higher profits, "to remove the incentive for profiteering
which was never more unconscionable
than today." The measure would
profits on the invested capital.

The other articles establish the rights of individuals in American countries. They adopt for all countries the doctrine by which persons born in an American state are nationals of that state, regardless of the nationality of their parents. They also divide the three-tier territorial basis.

The last article urges "the adherence of the Americas to the principles of the code so that it may become universal law, setting forth that the American states do not desire to separate themselves juridically from other continents."

FIFTH POPES TO HAVE

Even Necessary to Give Up 350 Meter Length; 222 to 545 Meters for Public

Washington, April 1.—Recommendations of the recent national radio conference for reduction of ether wave lengths as a means of reducing interference will be accepted with slight modifications by the commission of the State Tax department, Secretary Hoover announced today, and will be put into effect gradually.

Broadcasting stations will be given time to adjust their equipment to their wave length assignment and no station will be forced to cease use of the present 350 meter band unless it so desires. The conference concluded its session 10 days ago and its report has been in the hands of Mr. Hoover for study since.

The recommendations by the radio conference represent a step in the ideal development of measures for the prevention of interference in public broadcasting," Mr. Hoover's statement declared.

The report recommends in King County, all wave lengths above 345 meters for public broadcasting, the various possible bands to be assigned to different stations so as not only to reduce direct interference but also to build up zonal regions of distribution.

The governor has not yet given up
hope of forcing passage of the measures at this session. The results of
leaders was so satisfactory, the executive indicated, that he sees a possibility of bringing the majority over
conferences. The effect of his
speeches during his tour of the state, starting in Syracuse Tuesday, is also
depended upon to aid his program.

AWAIT ARREST OF DOROTHY KEEMAN'S CHLOROFORMER

New York, April 1.—Developments in the Dorothy Keenan murder mystery were at a standstill today, all interested parties merely waiting for the police to make an arrest.

Assistant District Attorney Ferdinand Pease said yesterday he was through with his investigation. After he had completed his examination of many witnesses, including John Keane by Mitchell, wealthy Philadelphia citizen and son-in-law of E. E.
Shorey, who admitted that he had made numerous visits to the model apartment and given her gifts of money and jewels to a value of $10,000. Mr.
Pease said he had turned all his information over to the police and the case was in their hands.

ONE KILLED; THREE WOUNDED.

Hackensack, N.J., April 1.—Mrs.
Adelaide Braderberg of Woodbridge, member of the Hudson county Republican committee, was killed early today when a motor car in which she was riding with her husband was struck by a train in a railroad park. The three other members of the car were slightly injured.

NO OWNER CLAUSES WISE.

New York, April 1.—When three men companies of Miss Marion Hill denied ownership of a bottle of wine, found on their table in a Greenwich Village restaurant recently, the police arrested them on a charge of violating prohibition laws. Miss Hill told authori-

Effect of Tutankhamen Apparent;

Colorful Turbans

New York, April 1.—Attended by a smiling sun, but with fair from balmy breezes, the annual Easter day parade on Fifth avenue today was notable for the absence of spring weather and the number and variety of furs.

Swathed from ankles to chin in her winter garments, madly exhibited visibly only spring headress and footwear and except in occasional instances did other than a trailing skirt give a hint of what is to be the prevailing mode.

Colors predominated in all attire not hidden by winter coats and the effect of Tutankhamen was apparent.
Hats were smaller, and the Egyptian influence brought back the turban of multicolored decorated with scarfs and hieroglyphics. On the whole, small straws, slightly adorned with flowers and fruits of riotous colors were the most apparent. Red seemed to be the prevailing color for hats although the mixture was bewildering.

Colored shoes also seemed the mode, with how to match. Blue hats and chiffon laces were popular, while red shoes and black chiffon hose were second choice. Color combinations were attempted with striking effect.

LAWYER DISCUSSION

A STORY OR TWO

The manager of a Tennessee electric railway claims, according to the Public Service magazine, to have received the following letter: "If I'm a smirking, anti-nosed, tight-skirted, face-habitué, uttering little man who stuck her gum on the street car seat on the Broadway line last Thursday evening and permitted me to sit down on it will call at my office in the back." Building she can have the gum back. It is on the southern front of my spare trousers. If she can't get the gum off she can have the pants too.

Two farmers were boasting of their accomplishments in that particular and one of them resolved to show up the other. So he arose one morning about 3 o'clock, went over to his neighbor's house and knocked on the door. The neighbor's wife called out, "Who's there?" "It is Jim Place," replied the visitor. "I'm looking for your husband. Where is he?" The wife scented mice. "Why, I don't know," she answered. "I knew he's out around the farm somewhere. I haven't seen him since early this morning."

Before Public Service Commission.

There are four cases before the Public Service commission at Albany on Thursday morning which concern the New York State Gas and Electric corporation, which has lighting franchises in many of the vicinity towns, as well as the gas and electric service in this city.

P. R. Chambers, local manager of the New York State Gas and Electric corporation, said last evening that all of the projects were already constructed under the permission of the commission and that the cases of the week were only a legal form.

The first petition is brought by the New Berlin Light and Power company to transfer its franchises, works, and systems to the above mentioned corporation. The second is by that corporation to construct an electric plant in the town of Pittsfield, Otsego county; the third to construct an electric plant in the town of New Berlin; and his fourth to construct an electric plant in the town of Milford.

OWING TO ILLNESS

Prof. Adams, Cornell specialist, is unable to visit County.

Professor Robert Adams, who was to speak at several community and school meetings this week, has been obliged to cancel the trip due to sickness. Because of this those meetings will be postponed. The assistant county club agent will fill all the following engagements:

Monday, April 2—Maryland, No. 2, 9 a. m.; Maryland, No. 9, 10:30 a. m.; East Worcester school, 2:30 p. m.; Westford school, 7:30 p. m. wedded at four o'clock this afternoon at North Keiright at the hands of Rev. R. H. Irwin of the United Presbyterian church. The couple are taking a short trip and will be at home at Roxbury the latter part of the present week.

The bride wore a blue georgette gown and hat to match, carrying white carnations. She has been a milliner at Lexington and is a very nimble young lady. Mr. Graham has been helping on the farm at his home in Roxbury and that community will be glad to welcome the couple.

United Commercial Travellers Dance.

An unusually large attendance is expected at the next dance of the United Travellers to be held in Dreamland hall Friday evening, April 6. The entertainment will be informal and will be strictly private for United Commercial Travellers and their invited guests. CONSERVATION WEEK

This is the second day of Conservation week. Forestry is an important branch of conservation.

Forestry has been a problem of the future to most people. But that often-referred-to future is beginning to reach into the pockets of the people of today and is rapidly losing its futuristic disguises to the man on the street, says the New York State College of Forestry at Syracuse university.

Forestry is the raising of repeated forest crops from non-agricultural soils and the proper utilization of these crops. Forestry involves the production of wood and the use of it. The primary purpose of forestry is to make the forest yield supplies to meet the needs of man. The farmer grows corn; the forester grows trees; one is as much a human necessity as the other. One is a crop of months, the other a crop of decades. That's why everybody can give a pretty good definition for agriculture and a pretty poor one for forestry. If trees could be grown in a season forestry would not be such an important matter today.

Forestry involves the problem of water supply for drinking purposes and agriculture. It involves the vital problem of recreation and health, the preservation of wild life, the supply of wood which reaches into practically every human activity. It is one of the nation's great assets in time of war. The need of forestry is being expressed in increased cost of living. By imposing penalties upon every individual necessarily is teaching the seriousness of the neglect of forestry in the United States.

The county agricultural agents who are working with Prof. G. M. Collingwood of Cornell university, and M. C. Burritt, vice director of extension of the New York State College of Agriculture to secure the planting of demonstration forests in every county where suitable locations can be secured have already placed orders for more than $60,000 worth of trees to be planted in 35 counties, among them being: Otsego, Cortland, Montgomery, Delaware, Herkimer, Oneida, Schenectady, Schoharie, Broome, and Ulster.

The planting of these demonstration forests will be done with the same care and publicity that would characterize the establishment of grain varieties or other crop demonstrations, but in most of the counties the work will not start before April 10, and in many of the counties, as in Otsego, will be done undoubtedly later.

MANY RECORD OPPOSITION

Local Regulation Would Break Up Many Famed Erie.

A symposium of opinion upon the proposals of Governor Smith for municipal regulation of public utilities from chambers of commerce, civic organizations, lawyers, engineers, bankers and business men, was filed with the Public Service committee of the senate and assembly by the Institute of American Business.

The public utility program before the legislature, says the institute, is "so sweeping in its provisions that it effects not only rates, conditions of service and investments, but would, in addition, if enacted into law, exercise a far-reaching influence upon municipal political conditions."

Utility control and regulation in New York city is made "a part of the spoils of office," says the institute.

Less than four per cent of views expressed in the symposium favor local regulation. Ninety-six per cent declare unequivocally for state regulation.

MOLINARI CAFE RAIDED.

Officers Seize Several Cases of Tonic and Arrest Anthony Molinari.

Another one of the police department's periodic raids on the Molinari cafe on South Main street was made Saturday evening and netted the officers a prisoner, Anthony Molinari, eight cases of Quwick's Pepto tonic and a case of what is supposed to be Planet Horke Vino, another tonic with a large alcoholic content. A glass containing what is believed to be whiskey was turned into the sink by Molinari before the officers could get to him.

Molinari will appear in police court at 9 o'clock this morning to answer to charges of illegal possession and sale of liquor. It is alleged that he sold the tonic over the bar, a violation of the law, which permits its sale only in full, original containers. The raid was conducted by Sergeant Odell, Officer Terrell and three troopers from the Sidney barracks.

South Side News Note.

George Quackenbush was pleasantly surprised by 20 of his friends at his home at the Hemlocks Saturday evening, the occasion being his birthday. Guests were present from West Sherrill, Devonport, West Devonport and Oneonta. A musical program performed by Homer Wardell, Mr. Wintersmith and Miss Letta Quackenbush constituted a large portion of the evening's entertainment. Refreshments of a delectable character were provided by the guests. Prior to their departure the guests presented Mr. Quackenbush with a variety of hand-made gifts.

PUBLIC SERVICE COMMISSION

Otsego County Citizens' Motion of Public Interest in Otsego, Chenango and Delaware — Saratoga, Their Message to Sidney Anticipated.

Albany, April 1.—It is expected that a schedule will be arranged by the Ontario and Western and the Delaware and Hudson railroads over connection of the former's passenger train, No. 55 with D. &amp; H. train, No. 305 at Sidney, to go into effect April 22, which will be satisfactory under a complaint filed with the Public Service commission over faulty connection of these two trains and inconvenience to the public. This development at a hearing before E. D. Purkart, hearing deputy. Friday, when a postponement of the hearing was had for a conference between the operating officials of the two roads. The commission is to be notified in one week whether a satisfactory connection will be provided for the spring time table for the Sidney connection. If the railroads cannot agree, the commission will make an order.

Composed Hearing Postponed.

Because of inability to agree by the Gulf, Chenango county, town of Owego and the Ontario and Western railroad as to the manner in which the highway near East Gulford station shall cross the railroad tracks, the Public Service commission's hearing, E. D. Burkhardt, hearing deputy, was postponed today until April 23 at Sidney to take the evidence of witnesses to be called by the town. The highway, while now an important travel artery, will later develop into a highly travelled one because of highway improvement under way.

The highway runs under the railroad tracks and the town wants this undercrossing considerably enlarged and otherwise improved, while the railroad to lessen the expense seeks to utilize an existing trestle some distance from the present undercrossing and permit the highway to run under the trestle.

Watson Phone Order Amended.

The Public Service commission has amended its order suspending rates of the Walton People's Telephone company in Walton and vicinity which were proposed as effective on March 1st so as to permit the establishment of a charge for a new service, four party line residence telephone.

The company filed a new tariff increasing its rates generally on March 1st and providing for the establishment of a four-party line residence rate which had not been in existence heretofore. Because of complaints the commission suspended the entire schedule pending a hearing and determination, but at a hearing before Commissioner Blakeslee in Binghamton Monday request was made by the company for authority to go ahead and establish the four-party line service. All other rates proposed to be increased on March 1 remain under suspension.

DENTAL MOTION FOR NEW TRIAL

Verdict Secured by Miss Helen E. Case Announced by Judge McCann.

Hon. Charles C. Fleisch of Utica won a handsome victory last week when Justice McCann of Elizabethtown denied a motion for new trial in the suit brought by Miss Helen E. Case of this city against A. W. Grover, Jr., of Albany, for damages sustained by Miss Case some time ago in an automobile collision. The defendant claimed the verdict was not sustained by the evidence and that the amount awarded by the jury, $1,000, was excessive, but Justice McCann swept aside all the objections raised and affirmed the judgment. Mr. Fleisch was plaintiff's attorney, while defendant was represented by J. F. Lacy, and Rosemary, Dugay &amp; Hansen of Albany, as well as Owen C. Becker of this city.

Onecota Sales Company Brought up No Less Than 20 Cars on Friday Last Beginning Innovative Advertising Campaign.

Some record was established by the Oneonta Sales company, the local Ford agency last Friday, a record that will beyond doubt stand unrivaled among cities of the third class and many others of larger size for years.
On the day named the Sales company actually sold 39 Ford cars—24 new and 6 used cars. This was the climax of an intensive advertising campaign of ten days during which three days of each of two successive weeks were designated as special sales days for used cars to move an accumulation taken in exchange for new cars.

First announced for three days of the previous week there resulted such a rush that many used cars were taken which kept the supply on hand too large to satisfy Mr. Warren, and the special sale was continued for an additional three days. In fact the entire period of the advertising campaign was marked by a notable increase in the volume of business.
In referring to the large sales of Friday and of the days previous, Mr.
Warren said that he was more than ever convinced of the value of The Star as an advertising medium. Favored as we are with a location in the center of a large patronizing territory and with an article of value and utility to every purchaser, we are doubly fortunate to have an advertising medium so widely read in all the territory as is The Star.

We realized almost daily that we were much indebted to the paper for the success of the sale, declared Mr.
Warren, who said he made numerous sales by telephone to people who said that had noticed our announcements in The Star. Given a description of a car of the type desired and the price, orders were frequently closed and delivery made before the purchaser had seen the car.

Mr. Warren modestly omits another and very essential element for a successful merchandising campaign.
When there is added to those he enumerates a record for fair prices and good business methods such as the Sales company possesses, there are named fundamentals which spell success for any enterprise. It tells in few words the story of the success of the Ford agency in Oneonta.

The men will arrive in Oneonta at 2:45 p. m. from Binghamton, where they give a concert this evening, and will leave Wednesday morning for Albany where they appear that night.
They will be entertained at private homes during their stay in Oneonta.

Following the concert here a dance, for which no extra charge will be made, will be held in the High school gymnasium. Music will be furnished by the Hamilton Five, a quintet of syncopators with an enviable reputation in Central New York.

GOODS DAMAGED BY WATER

Pipe Burst in Coletic Barber Shop and Floors Department Store Causers.

Damage to the extent of over $500 was caused in the Oneonta Department store early yesterday morning when a faulty joint in the plumbing in the Coletic Barber shop, on the second floor of the Breez block, gave way and the ensuing flood of water streamed through the floor direct-over the cotton goods department in the store below. Many rolls of goods were ruined and others badly damaged by the dirty water.

The hot water heater in the barber shop had given trouble Friday and an employee of the Gas and Electric company had been working on it. It was discovered that a joint was immorally made and that it weakened and finally gave way. The trouble was discovered at about 3 a. m., by the watchman who notified the Breezes.
The loss is a complete one as no insurance is written to protect against that kind of water damage.

DRIVE FOR NEW MEMBERS.

Veteran Firemen's Association Inaugurated Movement.

The C. P. Huntington Association of Veteran Firemen of Oneonta has just inaugurated a membership campaign, which will continue for the next two months; and it has sent out letters to all present members, urging their cooperation. The next meeting of the association will be held on Wednesday evening, April 11, at which time a supper will be served, followed by a business meeting.

At the last regular meeting nine new members were elected, and blanks have been sent to all present members with the request that each secure at least an additional one, and present the applications at this meeting. The association has done excellent work in the city and it is hoped that all former members of the fire department will avail themselves of the opportunity to unite with the Veterans' association.

DIES IN CHURCH OF HIS CHOICE REV. IRVING J. SMITH DEAD

Benjamin G. Ackley of West Oneonta, Retired Member of Wyoming Conference and former Pastor at Afton, Wells Bridge and Sidney Center — Funeral at Sidney Wednesday.

Intelligence of the death of Rev. Irving J. Smith, a well known retired member of the Wyoming conference of the Methodist church occurring at the home of his son, Charles Wesley Smith, in Chicago, Ill., where he had been spending the winter, on Saturday, has been received by V. D. Keefer, who was justly popular during his editor of the Sidney Enterprise. His years of residence here and his many friends will rejoice that he has decided to locate permanently in his home town.

The deceased was born May 25, 1842, two miles from Schuyler Lake, in the town of Oneonta, and was a son of Lemuel and Lydia (Gurney) Ackley. The family resided in Oneonta township until he was about four years of age, when it moved to the town of Laurens, near Mt. Vision, his home being long in that vicinity. He was thrice married; his last wife being Miss Sarah J. Horton, of West Oneonta, to whom he was united in marriage November 26, 1912. For about twenty years he had resided at this place. By occupation he was a farmer and carpenter, his later years being mainly devoted to the latter occupation. He was formerly supervisor of the town of Laurens.

Mr. Ackley is survived by his wife, above named, by one daughter, Mrs. William Champlin, of Syracuse, by six grandchildren, and by three brothers, Barton and George W. Ackley, of Oneonta, and Charles Ackley of Mt. Vision. He was a devout Christian, and a member of the Century Baptist church of this village of which he had a regular attendant on the services of the church; and his passing on Easter Sunday, within the portals of the sacred edifice and engaged in church work, was peculiarly fitting to the departure of one in so full a sense a servant and follower of the Master. He was highly esteemed as neighbor and friend, and his death is a great shock to the community. The funeral services will be held at his late home on Wednesday at 3 p.m. Rev. Pendleton of the Main Street Baptist church of Oneonta will officiate, and interment will be in the family plot in the Mt. Vision cemetery.

DR. HOUSE TO LOCATE HERE

Dr. Lester S. House Will Open Office for Practice of Medicine and Surgery — City's Newest Physician Native of City and Graduate of O. U. S.

Dr. Lester S. House, who finished his Ontario internship in the Staten Island hospital, New York city, a short time ago and who has since been at the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Emory D. House, in this city, has decided to locate permanently in Oneonta and will open in the near future offices in the Bresen block in the old location of the Bresen Ice and Fuel company. Dr. House will engage in the practice of medicine and surgery, and will have time to specialize in surgery, in which he has had an admirable training.

Following his graduation from the Oneonta High school in 1916, Dr. House entered the medical school of the University of Vermont, from which he was graduated in 1921. An internship of a year, during three months of which he was house surgeon, followed at the Mary Fletcher hospital at Burlington. He then went to the Staten Island hospital at New York, where he has been for the past 18 months. For four months he was house surgeon there, during which time he had surgical experience of every description, including the performing of many major operations.

Dr. House combines the qualities of hand and heart in a capable physician and surgeon with a thorough wholistic training and a wealth of practical experience. He has had the benefit of watching the work of such famous surgeons and specialists as Abbe, Bartlett and Keyes and of performing operations himself under their guidance. His work at the Staten Island hospital was particularly valuable as cases of every description, both medical and surgical, came under his observation and care in that municipal institution.

During the past week Dr. House has been conducting the D. & H. new employee examinations for Dr. Arthur W. Cutler, during the latter's illness.

As soon as the rooms are in shape and his equipment all here Dr. House will open his office and commence the practice of the profession for which he has been so long preparing. Dr. House is a fine type of young man, day, has been received by V. D. Keefer, who was justly popular during his editor of the Sidney Enterprise. His years of residence here and his many friends will rejoice that he has decided to locate permanently in his home town.

ONLY FORTHE FILE RETURNS

One of 1,000,000 may taxpayers made Income Tax Paperwork Report for 1921.

Above, April 1.—Up to March 29, 300,000 taxpayers had filed returns with the state tax commission under the New York State Personal Income Tax law on incomes during 1921, according to announcement made in day. This leaves probably 300,000 more returns to be filed in two weeks.

If penalties provided by the law for filing after April 15 are to be avoided

Reports received up to yesterday from all parts of the state where representatives of the Income Tax offices are in the field seem to indicate a decided lull in the filing of returns at the end of last week. Officials of the bureaus are inclined to ascribe this to the Easter and spring shopping and similar interests tending to distract for a few days the money which might be used in paying the state income tax. It is believed that beginning tomorrow there will be a decided pick-up in the rate of filing returns and it is declared there must be, if the thousands subject to the law wish to avoid the risk of future inconvenience and even possible penalties arising from the last minute rush.

During the last week several cases arose in which it was thought by taxpayers that minors were not required to file returns and pay a tax, although their incomes might be large. The tax commission pointed out today that the fact that a person is under age does not relieve him from the duty of filing a return if his net income during 1921 was $1,000 or more.
